

Devils Golf

DEFINITIONS Two holes are cut on each putting green, one with a yellow flag and one with a red flag. The 'Yellow Flag' hole location is considered easy to play, and the 'Red Flag' hole location is considered difficult to play. Taking a 'Devil Play' means playing to the Red Flag.

TAKING A 'DEVILPLAY' A player must take exactly four DevilPlays in the nine holes, and their marker must mark their scorecard by circling the four hole numbers on which they take a DevilPlay. Devilplays attract double stableford points. A scorecard on which a player has not marked exactly four DevilPlays for nine holes is deemed to be in-valid, and the player will be disqualified from the event. A player must play to the Yellow Flag when not taking a DevilPlay

Players must nominate their DevilPlays before each tee shot.
